The Girls.

Hear the laughter of the girls—
Pretty girls.
What a fund of merriment each ruby lip unfurls!
How they chatter, chatter, chatter,
In the balmy air of night!
While the stars that over-spatter
All the heavens hear their clatter
In a soft and mild delight;
To the stimulation that, unceasing, ever purrs
From the girls, girls, girls, girls,
Girls, girls, girls, girls,
From the wild, capricious, saucy, jaunty girls.
See the flitting of the girls,
Radiant girls!
How the lover's softened brain wildly whirls
Through the mazes of the bal,
Up and down the stately hall!
How he skips to and fro
And perspires!
Would that we could tell the idiot all we know
Of the girls.
Into which the false ones hurl
Each new whim—see the flame—how it awirls!
How it curls!
Better far that they were churls,
Than fall victims to the girls;
To the prattle and the rattle
Of the girls, girls, girls,
Of the girls, girls, girls, girls,
Girls, girls, girls,
To the sacking and heart racking of the girls?

GENTLEMEN: I have used Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC in my practice, and in an experience of twenty-five years in medicine, have never found anything to give the results that Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC does. In many cases of Nervous Prostration, Female Debility, Dyspepsia, and an inveterate condition of the blood, this tonic remedy, has in my hands, made some wonderful cures. Cases that have baffled some of our most eminent physicians, have yielded to this great and incomparable remedy. I prescribe it in preference to any iron preparation made. In fact, such a compound as Dr. HARTER'S IRON TONIC is a necessity in my practice. DR. ROBERT SAMUELS, 3124 Wash Avenue, ST. LOUIS, MO., Nov. 20th, 1891.

AMENDMENT

TO THE

CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE

PROPOSED BY THE

Thirty First General Assembly, to be Voted on at the General Election of 1892.

CONCURRENT RESOLUTION Submitting to the Qualified Voters of the State of Missouri an Amendment to the Constitution thereof concerning the Judicial Department.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the general election to be held on the Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1892, the following amendment to the Constitution of the State of Missouri, concerning the Judicial Department, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said State, to wit:

SECTION 1. The Supreme Court shall consist of six Justices, and after the first Monday in January, 1893, be divided into two divisions, with three Justices each, one to be called the civil, the other the criminal side of the Court. The divisions shall sit separately for the disposition of causes, and any two Justices of a side shall constitute a quorum. The Chief Justice of the Court shall be presiding Justice of the division of which he may be a member, and also of the Court in bank; and of the other side, the Judge oldest of commission shall be presiding Justice. The criminal side of the Court shall hear and determine all appeals and writs of error in criminal cases, all damage cases in which the damages sued for sound in tort, all applications for writs of habeas corpus and quo warranto, and also such other causes, including mandamus, certiorari and other original remedial writs as may, by order of the civil side, be transferred to it from that division. The civil side of the Court shall hear and determine all other causes and applications, including mandamus and certiorari, and, except habeas corpus and quo warranto, other original remedial writs. The judgments, orders and decrees of either division shall have the force and effect of those of the Court.

SEC. 2. Whenever it shall be known, or be made appear to the Chief Justice that the criminal side of the Court has, within twenty days, rendered a decision contrary to some decision of the civil side, or to some decision of the Court, prior to its division, as to any matter within the jurisdiction of the civil side, he shall grant a rehearing of the cause: on such rehearing, the cause shall be determined by the Court in bank.

SEC. 3. After the first Monday in January, 1893, the jurisdiction of the St. Louis Court of Appeals and the election for Judge thereof shall be restricted to the Eighth Judicial Circuit, and after that time it shall have jurisdiction of any criminal case. Its decisions of all civil cases shall be final, except as otherwise provided in the next section, and the Judge oldest of commission shall be presiding Judge of the Court.

SEC. 4. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court that the St. Louis Court of Appeals has within two months rendered a decision contrary to some decision of the Supreme Court, he may cause to be issued the certiorari of the Supreme Court to transfer the cause from the Court of Appeals to the Supreme Court for rehearing: on such rehearing all the Justices, both of the Supreme Court and Court of Appeals, or a majority of them, shall sit and, if present, the Chief Justice shall preside, and the cause shall then be determined by a majority of all the Justices, and when thus determined it shall be of binding authority to both Courts.

SEC. 5. After the first Monday in January, 1893, no appeal shall lie to, or writ of error issue from, the St. Louis Court of Appeals in any criminal case, but all such appeals, whether by appeal or writ of error, shall go directly to the Supreme Court.

SEC. 6. Upon the adoption of this amendment the Governor shall appoint and commission a Justice of the Supreme Court, who shall hold the office until the first Monday in January, 1893, and at the general election for the Supreme Court shall be elected. The first Monday in January, 1893, may determine who of them shall sit on the civil and who on the criminal side of the Court: provided, they do so at 2 P. M. of that day; failing in this the Governor shall immediately assign them. After the first Monday in January, 1893, Judges shall be elected to fill vacancies on the civil or criminal side, as the case may be, and with special reference to their fitness for that side in which the vacancy has or is to occur.

SEC. 7. All provisions of the Constitution of this State, and all laws and parts of laws of this State, not consistent with this amendment, shall, upon its adoption, be forever rescinded and of no effect.
